

MO Child Advocacy Day
April 7, 2010 ~ Jefferson City

Attend a regional training for Child Advocacy Day!

Child Advocacy 101: Speaking Out for Kids from your Community to the Capitol

When: Saturday, February 6th from 9 - 11 AM

Where: Bank of Hannibal Community Room

3817 McMasters Avenue, Hannibal, MO 63401

Description: Missouri's annual Child Advocacy Day is an opportunity for parents, providers, and community members to speak up and ask lawmakers to make the health, safety, and education of Missouri's children a top priority for the state.

This interactive training will provide advocates with the knowledge, confidence, and tools to effectively communicate with state lawmakers. We encourage all individuals or groups who plan to attend the 2010 Child Advocacy Day to attend a regional Advocacy 101 workshop beforehand.

RSVP: Register via the MOCCRRN website or call Rebecca Rentchler at 573-356-4562

Sponsored by the MO Alliance for Children, Youth, & Families
For information about Child Advocacy Day trainings visit: www.childadvocacyday.org or email shapton@pfc.org